Coal Mining Facts

—by—

SAMUEL B. PETTINGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

Last year 917 soft coal miners were killed. These are the figures of the U. S. Bureau of Mines. This means that 1 man in 400 was killed; that mining is our most hazardous major industry. It indicates the need for unending research to improve conditions in the mines. To such extent, John L. Lewis is right.

But before turning over $60,000,000 a year to Mr. Lewis, to do with as he sees fit, we ought to get our facts in perspective. The Bureau of Mines' figures show that the mines are getting safer every year. Last year 97 were killed, but in 1930 the figure was 1,619. In no year since 1930 has the number of men permanently and totally disabled equaled 199. In 1943, it was 23.

These official figures are to be contrasted with the Lewis claim that in 14 years the mine owners "made dead 28,000 and horribly mangled 1,004,000." The dead in 14 years were 14,615, or about one-half the Lewis figure; the totally disabled were 691, and the permanently and partially disabled were 19,222.

The rate killed per million tons of coal mined in 1945 was only 47% of the 1930 figure. In short, there has been a 53% improvement.

As against this, the United States record for accidental deaths shows little improvement. In 1930, 95,379 were killed by accident in the United States; in 1940, the last peace-time year, the figures was 98,581. Drunken or careless drivers killed thirty times as many in 1940 as were killed in coal mine accidents.

If the record of improvement on accidental deaths throughout the United States had been as good as in coal mining, 49,550 lives would have been saved in the one year of 1940. In short, the coal mines have a better record for improvement than the American public.

If the Lewis charges were supported by the facts, they would be a terrific indictment, not only of the mine owners but of public officials, federal and state. What have they all been doing these past 14 years? The great soft coal states, such as Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, etc., have had New Deal Governors, legislatures and mine inspectors, no doubt humanitarian to the last man. Why, then, have we waited all these years for John L. Lewis to make his first demand for a "$60,000,000 welfare" fund to be administered by him, without accountability to anyone?

Why, too, shouldn't union funds be used for the benefit of labor union members? Yet, in 1936, John L. Lewis, without consulting his coal miners, used $600,000 of their money to re-elect Mr. Roosevelt. That year 1,698 miners were killed. The $600,000 would have put $600 each in the hands of their widows.

If $60,000,000 (which is 100 times his 1936 campaign contribution) were now placed in the hands of John L. Lewis each year how much

Implicates Accomplice
In Hold-Up of A Diner

RIEGELSVILLE, May 27—When the arrest of Oliver Moffet, 19, of Kansas City, Mo., took place several days ago in Maryland, and the Doylestown sub-station of State Police had taken steps to lodge a charge against him of holding up a night man at the Wa Wa Diner near here on May 16, it didn't take long for Moffet to start talking.

He implicated his accomplice in his hold-up and car-stealing escapades and F. B. I. agents arrested John Edward Casamore, 36, in Philadelphia, as Moffet's partner in crime. Casamore, 6 feet, 3 inches tall, is now in Moyamensing Prison awaiting further investigation.

State Police in Philadelphia said that Casamore is believed to have been the occupant of the handi-car that last week was followed for miles by New Jersey State Police and riddled with bullet holes before the police car was disabled. It was Casamore, according to Moffet, who fired a shot at the front tire of the police car and temporarily put a halt to the chase so far as the police were concerned. The car was abandoned in Philadelphia when Moffet and Casamore separated.

State Police from Glenolden and Bethlehem barracks went to Maryland to take Moffet back to the Philadelphia State Police headquarters for statements. Trooper John Mitchell, of the Doylestown sub-station, and New Jersey State Police were on hand for the questioning of Moffet and Casamore.

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

With about 50 returned veterans, including one WAC, in attendance, the West Bucks Chapter of the American Veterans' Committee was organized at a meeting, in Southampton.

Bucks county's first AVC chapter will be headed by the following officers: Chairman, George H. Ermentrout; vice-chairman, James Laing; secretary, Charles Weil, and treasurer, Wendell McMurray.

Prior to the organization, Julius Rosenwald, 2d, acting chairman of the Abington-Cheltenham Chapter, the first AVC chapter to be organized in the North Philadelphia suburban area, read the statement of intentions.

Miss Helen Willard, director of the Philadelphia School of Occupational Therapy was the guest speaker on the occasion of the last meeting of the season of the Newtown Parent-Teacher Association.

The meeting was featured also by a mother and daughter tea, which was attended by about 75 persons.

Miss Sarah Rafferty, from Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia, to her Buckley street home.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The President's emergency legislation, which quickly swept through the House, headed into trouble in the Senate, where a coalition objected to the provision empowering the President to draft for Army service the men involved in a strike against the Government.

Governors arriving in Oklahoma City for the Governors' conference also hesitated over this provision, but otherwise approved of Mr. Truman's actions and felt that he had enhanced his political fortunes.

However, President Whitney of the Trainmen's Brotherhood, was bitter and promised to use the $47,000,000 in the union's treasury in an effort to defeat President Truman should he run for re-election. CIO representatives in New York also threatened vengeance against the President and Congressmen who supported his strike-control measures after the union men had heard Mr. Truman referred to as the country's "No. 1 strike-breaker," who had committed "treason" by bowing to "American Fascists."

In Paris the deputies of the Foreign Ministers reconvene today to try to iron out differences dividing the Big Four before the principals meet again on June 17.

Foreign Secretary Bevin and Foreign Minister Molotov exchanged polite greetings on the fourth anniversary of the Anglo-Soviet treaty of alliance.

OTHER COURT CASES

DOYLESTOWN, May 27—Declaring that it was too bad that he forgot all the good things he learned in the Army Air Forces, President Judge Hiram H. Keller on Wednesday sentenced a Staff Sergeant, who wears five battle stars and served as a radioman and gunner in the CBI and POA, to serve not less than 11 nor more than 23 months in the County Prison.

Leon Szustkiewicz, 23, formerly of Sellersville, RD 1, who drove the car while his younger brother, Charles, and a friend, Andrew Skerencak, robbed roadside stands in Millfort township and Ridge Valley, told Judge Keller: "I don't know how I came to do it; maybe because I was out of work."

Now in the Reserve Corps with the rating of a first three-grader, Szustkiewicz pleaded guilty with his younger brother and friend to charges of burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods.

His younger brother, Charles, 18, and Andrew Skerencak, 18, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, were sentenced to the Pennsylvania Reformatory, near Harrisburg.

The trio, who slept in the sergeant's car parked on back roads, robbed a Ridge Valley roadstand, Wackerman's tannery, Bealer's service station, Wolfe's store and took a jack from an automobile.

Andrew Skerencak, who has been in trouble with Connecticut authorities in connection with breaking and entering and stealing gasoline, admitted "breaking up" an antique revolver which he stole in one of the night raids.

"What did you do with that revolver?" Webster S. Achey, counsel for the two brothers asked. "I broke it by throwing it against a rock. I was scared to have anything to do with guns," said the 18-year-old second offender.

The younger brother, Charles Szustkiewicz, appeared in Juvenile Court here in 1940 when he was 13 on a charge of incorrigibility.

They stole cigars, flashlights, socks, radio, liquor (none of which they drank because they don't use it) and other articles.

Robert A. Robinson, 2732 North Fairhill street, Philadelphia, who pleaded guilty to larceny and receiving stolen goods, was sentenced by Judge Keller to pay a fine of $25.

FULL POWER OF GOVERNMENT DIRECTED AGAINST COAL STRIKE; ARMY IS READY TO PROTECT OPERATION OF THE MINES

Troops Move Into Bituminous Fields Under President's Orders—Will Guard Miners Who Wish to Work for Uncle Sam—Indications Are That the United Mine Workers Are Standing Firm on Policy.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 27—President Truman directed the full power of the Government against the coal strike today with the Army ready to protect operation of the Federally-seized mines.

Troops moved into the bituminous fields under the President's orders when a detachment of 150 men was sent to Madisonville, Ky., to guard miners who wished to work for Uncle Sam.

Other military units were alerted at the Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds for possible emergency duty in the Appalachian area.

In the mining regions, sentiment indicated that the United Mine Workers were standing firm on their "no contract, no work" policy.

Coal Mines Administrator J. A. Krug resumed negotiations with John L. Lewis at 10 a. m., e. s. t., today on a Government contract to settle the prolonged mine controversy.

The UMW president may have an answer to any last-minute proposal originated at the White House parley Sunday. Lewis conferred with his negotiation committee for an hour after the meeting.

Senate leaders planned to attempt quick passage during the day of emergency labor legislation requested by Mr. Truman. The House already has acted.

The Government position is understood to be that it can offer the miners no more in wage increases than the 18½ cent hourly increase pattern established in steel, railroads and other major industries.

The Government also was understood to have turned down Lewis' original welfare fund demand—a 7½ levy on the industry's billion-dollar annual payroll to finance a union-controlled fund.

PITTSBURGH, May 27—Undaunted by draft threats and possible loss of State Unemployment Compensation, soft coal miners in Western Pennsylvania continued to remain away from the pits today after personal intervention by President Truman failed to bring about a settlement in the bitter bituminous dispute.

An early survey showed that most of the 56,000 miners failed to report for work at the district's Government-controlled collieries. Heavy

GROUPS ASSEMBLE TO HONOR THE WAR DEAD

Rev. Solla is The Speaker at Tullytown; Rev. Haas at Cornwells Heights

HAVE SHORT PARADES

Memorial season services and parades were conducted in two lower Bucks County communities, Tullytown and Cornwells Heights, yesterday.

The activities were directed by members of Robert W. Bracken Post, No. 382, American Legion, with residents of the two communities participating.

Early in the afternoon the Post members, Cadet Corps, and others, were met at the lower end of Tullytown borough by members of Fallsington Post of American Legion, and Tullytown school children, the groups parading to Tullytown Cemetery. This was the first parade in which Fallsington Post has participated.

The speaker of the day was the Rev. Andrew G. Solla, pastor of Presbyterian Church of Our Saviour, and Major in the Chaplains' Reserve Corps. The Rev. Solla's theme was "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." He said that "We gather here to honor those who died in the last war and in all other wars. These new veterans gave a great account of themselves." Referring to John's vision as recounted in Revelation—that of a new heaven and new earth appearing—the speaker added: "The men who fought the good fight rest from their labors, but their good works follow them."

"Thank God for these men who put service and sacrifice above self and politics. The greatest heroes are those who never came back."

"Peace can never be assured if made with the idea of vengeance or by taking people and transporting them to other countries, or dividing belongings of a conquered people."

Program by the Tullytown school pupils included:

Recitation, "Memorial Day," four girls; song, "I Salute Thee, Old Glory," primary children; reading, "At the Peace Table," Harry Barwell; recitation, "The Soldier on Crutches," Jackie; Walterick; recitation, "For the Fallen," Dolores Miller; FEEDING FRUSTRATION

Some persons go on "food
benders" for relief from emotional frustration in the same way that others engage in alcoholic bouts, according to Dr. Louis H.
Twyeffort, a Philadelphia psychiatrist.

Excessive eating, with consequent excessive weight, often can be traced to an emotional disorder, Dr. Twyeffort told a clinic session of the American College of Physicians. To show that such cases of extreme overweight may erroneously be diagnosed as due to a glandular disorder, he cited the case of a youth in his twenties who weighed 442 pounds as a result of excessive eating and who told the doctor: "All my life I have hidden my troubles behind a plate of food. If I had taken to alcohol instead I would have been dead long ago." That latter statement might be difficult to prove.

Dr. Twyeffort recalled that the youth on one occasion had gone on a four-hour spree at an all-night restaurant after he had fallen out with his girl friend. Under psychiatric treatment, the youthful poly-poly was enabled to cope with his emotional problems and
"no longer had to regress to the more primitive ways of seeking sensory satisfaction." Taking off 100 pounds, the lad "subsequently made an excellent record in the Merchant Marine," Dr. Twyeffort reported.

This story casts a new light on the popularity of all-night restaurants and stirs speculation, too, about the possible number of frustrated patrons in a crowded roadside diner. Here, if anywhere, persons eat as if starved,
yet it may be they are only love-starved. Does a train of hamburgers, dripping with ketchup, go further in making a man forget the pangs of unrequited love than a succession of double ryes or brandies?

Middle age, too, requires its compensations either in frustration or resignation, and the solace of eating seems to be fairly standard. But resultant overweight only adds to the burden and sense of futility. But in the months ahead adequate emotional relief will no longer be acquirable in this gustatory manner, judging from the daily bulletins on the food outlook.

LOAF OF BREAD

A shortage of bread, which is daily becoming more acute—a shortage which "economists" now gloomily say will continue for five years during which period this nation will be feeding hundreds of millions of Europeans and Asians, is a new experience in America. Never in the history of the nation was there a shortage of bread.

It was not many years ago that most of the bread consumed in this country was baked in the housewife's kitchen. Only a small percentage of the nation's bread supply is baked in this manner
today, and home bakers are experiencing difficulty in obtaining flour.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol July 9, 1891. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger
with the Courier.

The system of watchmen's electrical clocks which has lately been introduced in Bristol with the idea of securing more adequate police protection is the subject of much inquiry from a number of the citizens of the town who are desirous of obtaining more knowledge of the workings of the plan. The idea of the police committee in introducing the system was to insure the streets being patrolled, vigilantly, thus giving the citizens a feeling of security against evil-doers. After midnight and until morning three officers are on duty who follow each other over the route at intervals of 30 minutes, and having 90 minutes
in which to make their rounds.
This plan insures two men being in different parts of the town at the same time, while the remaining officer is at the station house. The route taken by the men is between three and four miles in length, which they are obliged to traverse
three times each night.

A plan for paving Mill street with vitrified brick is being actively agitated by the members of the street committee. The estimated cost of the brick paving with pitch joints,
is $2,000 per square, and the proposed plan divides the cost of the same between the property-owners and the borough, the latter assuming one-half of the cost, the former dividing the remaining half between themselves. The idea meets with approval from many of the residents of the street, the assent of all between Pond and Wood streets being secured, excepting two.

Shortly after 12 o'clock Monday noon, the barn in the rear of the residence of Thomas Hughes, was discovered to be on fire by some residents of Wilson street, on which the barn fronts. An alarm was given and was promptly responded to by several companies. Two streams were soon directed upon the flames
and they were soon extinguished.

Mr. Lewis is, by all odds, the ablest labor leader in America. And whatever else may be said of him,
he does not take orders from Moscow. He has served his men well.
His present demands should be read in the light of the terrible struggle for power now going on in the labor world. Hillman, Murray and Reuther are his chief rivals.
The red press and radio are howling for his blood. So, read between the lines and keep your shirt (if any) on. Remember that Shakes-teries in Europe and "in less than three hours saw 12,000 graves of American boys." He stated there were broken hearts under each white cross and the heartbreak is immeasurable. "I have a wholesome respect for G. I. Joe as he was a great fellow," Col. Bare stated that he had as many as 43 funerals in one day and the tears of mothers, fathers and loved ones seeped into his heart.

"G. I. Joe threw himself as a barrier to safeguard our liberties. Our country is different from others as we have freedom of speech and press and we have this because we had brave men who wanted us to have them. There was no freedom of speech or press in any country we soldiered in, thus it is a great privilege to say and write what we want, and it is one of the reasons why our boys died. Therefore, we must preserve it. We also have freedom from fear and many other freedoms which our boys died to preserve."

Col. Bare said "you go to your church and I'll go to mine and all be good Americans together. America is a new world with a new spirit." In closing he said we have our great freedoms. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom from fear and freedom of religion which was given to us by brave men and defended by brave men.

Mr. Schmidt presented certificates from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania State Council of Defense to both the church and the Rev. Haas. Harold F. Hunter, vice president, board of trustees, accepted the award for the church. Some of the things that the church did during the war, through its pastor were cited.

"First ward headquarters for air raid wardens. Red Cross center—two nights each week for first-aid classes, both elementary and advanced courses; Red Cross blood donors station for Bristol, food conservation program, rallies held for every bond drive and the only canteen for servicemen in Bristol was held here, sponsored by Bristol Business Girls and War Mothers; juvenile activities hobby shop for boys and sewing classes for the girls. The use of the building, including heat and light was all donated as well as services of a doctor and pastor."

The certificate reads: "Commonwealth, State Council of Defense—Services rendered in civilian defense during years of war with Germany and Japan by Bristol Methodist church are gratefully acknowledged and this certificate will attest patriotic duty splendidly performed."

Rev. Haas' certificate reads the same with the necessary substitutions. Both certificates were signed by Gov. Edward Martin, Executive Director Ralph A. Hutchison, and Earl D. Blair, chairman, County Council of Defense.

In the Presbyterian Church of Our Saviour, the Rev. Andrew G. Solla, Ph. D., D. D., addressed members of Joseph A. Schumacher Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Ladies' Auxiliary, and others last evening.

Dr. Solla expressed the thought that without the shedding of blood and suffering there is nothing worth-while accomplished. "As Christ died for the sins of the world, so many of our men, from the inception of our country, have died in order that we may enjoy the fruits of their sacrifice."

The speaker drew attention to the devotion of men to their country, emphasizing that while they are fighting they do not ask many questions or seek to ask why there is a war; rather obeying the call to duty to their country. He then quoted the message taken from a tombstone at Thermopylae: "Stranger, go tell the Lacedaemonians that we lie here in obedience to their law," adding that "Thousands upon thousands from the days of the Revolution to the present, are laying under the soil in obedience to the law of their land."

Rev. E. Paul Baird Named Pastor of Saint Mark's

After his ordination the Rev. Murphy was appointed assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, Jenkintown, where he remained but a few months. After a stay at St. Cecilia's Church, Coatesville, he went to Holy Family Church, Manayunk, as assistant to the Rev. Michael McEnroe. In 1898 he was appointed assistant pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Church, Philadelphia, where he worked for 16 years. The Rev. Murphy was a successful curate at Our Lady of Mercy, and in recognition of his priestly and administrative abilities he was chosen to succeed the Rev. Bradley as pastor of St. Mark's here.

The Rev. Baird, who becomes pastor at St. Mark's, has been affiliated with St. Mark's parish for the past 16 years.

Are Graduated Today
Commencement exercises, terminating the 75th anniversary celebration at West Chester State Teachers' College, were held at West Chester this morning for a class of 106 seniors. Hon. Owen J. Roberts, former Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, delivered the address to the graduates. Dr. Charles S. Swope, president of the college, awarded diplomas and conferred degrees.

The following members of the graduating class are from Bucks county:

Elva B. Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. H. Bailey, Newport Terrace, who received the degree of B. S. in music education.

Mary R. Antrobus, daughter of Mrs. Hannah Rossiter, New Hope, who received the degree of B. S. in secondary education.

Fae J. Rantz, daughter of Mrs.

George Rantz, Mill street, Quakertown, who received the degree of B. S. in elementary education. Miss Rantz is an honor roll student, and has accepted a position as teacher of the Third Grade in the public schools of Quakertown next Fall.

Doris Snyder, daughter of Mrs. Walter S. Snyder, 315 Market street, Perkasie, who received the degree of B. S. in health education.

rainfall washed out most of the strip mining operations.

In West Virginia some miners reported for work but were sent home because of the lack of coal cars.

With Thursday Memorial Day holiday breaking up the work week, coal operators gloomily predicted little production this week, regardless of the outcome of the Washington negotiations.

A report that the State might reverse its original decision and deprive the miners of the $20 weekly unemployment compensation apparently failed to impress the strikers. Only last week payments were issued to miners who did not work during the two-week truce.

Meanwhile, naval authorities were standing by to protect miners wishing to return to the pits under the President's seizure order.

Triple Anniversaries Are Celebrated By Group Here

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Douglass Johnson and the wedding anniversaries of Mrs. John Waters and Mrs. Charles Jones were celebrated Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Marvin Collins, Hayes street. The evening was enjoyed in a social way. A repast was served. Mrs. Johnson was presented with gifts, and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Waters were presented bouquets. Pink and white decorations were used and a bouquet of cut flowers formed the table centerpiece.

Others present: Mrs. Norman Tomlinson, Miss Jean Collins, Miss Rhoda Saxton, Miss Kathleen Why-no.

Today's Quiet Moment

By Rev. Andrew G. Solla,
Th. D., D. D.
Pastor, Presbyterian Church
of Our Saviour

"Lord, Teach Us To Pray"

O blessed Saviour, Who didst in Thy priestly prayer ask so very earnestly for the unity of Thy people. We, dear God, do not pray so much for organic unity, but rather for that unity of spirit and purpose, so that love and good will may reign in the hearts of Thy children. Make us realize, dear Father, that it is when we are one in love and desire to work for Thy holy cause that Thou dost bless us as individuals, and as a nation. This we ask in Christ's holy name. Amen.

Holly, N. J., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Martin, Jackson street.

Miss Mary Hobart and mother, Mrs. A. Hobart, Perkaskie, and Matthew Wieteha, Sellersville, were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Voderick, Hayes street.

Mrs. A. P. Barry, Detroit, Mich., is paying a few weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGlynn, Bath street.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fine and daughter Diana returned to their home in Cleveland, O., after spending a week with Mr. Fine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. H. Fine, Radcliffe street.

John W. Harman, S. 1/c, received his honorable discharge at Bainbridge, Md., and returned to Dorrance street.

GAME ENDS AT 9 TO 3

Croydon "Vets" Suffer First Defeat of The Season

PORT MONMOUTH, May 27—Fort Monmouth made six hits against the Croydon Veterans of Foreign Wars yesterday afternoon but made everyone of them count in scoring a 9-3 win over the "Vets." It was the first loss of the season for the Croydon team.

Five of the six hits and all the Fort Monmouth runs were made while "Jimmy" Hopkins was tossing them in for the Vets. The hits were mixed with passes and two errors to account for the runs. "Freddie" Barbetta hurled after Hopkins left the peak and set down the army men with one hit.

In the fourth innings, "Jimmy" Gibson, of the army, socked a home run to deep center with one on base. After Dixon and Kirk walked in the sixth, Travis followed with a three-bagger to center. Two more hits and an error gave the soldiers five runs in this frame.

While all this was going on a southpaw hurler, "Roccie" Mura was setting down the "Vets" nicely. Mura, who hails from Hartford, Conn., and is a minor-league hurler, held Croydon to seven hits and fanned 13 batters. He struck out Wally Oppman three times, and Breslin, Roe, Dea, twice. The only Croydon batter who was not a victim of Mura's hooks in the strike-out column was "Herbie" Yates who had two hits.

HARRIMAN YOUTHS SPLIT TWO GAMES

The Harriman team split two games over the week-end in the Bristol Youth League.

It beat the H. and M. Trucking, 7-5, on Saturday afternoon, and lost to the Third Ward Eagles, 9-1, yesterday.

"Johnny" Pindar held the H. and
M. aggregation to two hits and this tilt was featured by a home run from the bat of "Sonny" Strong in the sixth inning.

"Lenny" Jones hurled for the Third Ward team and held the sixth ward boys to six scattered hits. The team from the Pike had the jump
on the Harriman club by scoring six runs in the first inning. Jones struck out eleven and walked one.

In the other Youth League game, Penn A. C. scored 19 runs in the fifth to whip the West Bristol team, 13-6. The West Bristol lads scored all their runs off Bacci in the second inning.
